

Richard B. Dole
Trombone and Jazz Educator

111 Buckingham Drive
Indianapolis, IN 46208
rbdole@gmail.com | www.richarddole.com
(317) 513-2468

EDUCATION

- Master of Music, Jazz Studies 2000
Indiana University Jacobs School of Music
Outside Area: Instrumental Conducting
- Bachelor of Music, Trombone Performance 1996
Indiana University Jacobs School of Music

ACADEMIC POSITIONS

- Adjunct Professor of Music, Jazz Studies 2014-Present
Butler University
Duties include instruction of jazz trombone, directing jazz ensembles, and Aural Skills classes
- Director of High School Large Jazz Ensemble 2012-Present
Butler Youth Jazz Program
Audition, rehearse, and direct high school students from the Indianapolis region 8 weeks each semester. Provide instruction on recreating jazz repertoire culminating in a public concert at The Jazz Kitchen in Indianapolis, Indiana.
- Jazz Faculty 2015-Present
Butler University Summer Jazz Camp
Provide daily direction of high school large jazz ensemble, daily trombone master classes, and daily jazz history lessons for middle school students.

ACADEMIC POSITIONS (con't)

Adjunct Professor of Music, Jazz Studies 2002-2005, 2013-2014

University of Indianapolis

Provided individual and group instruction in Jazz Pedagogy, individual jazz instruction to undergraduate trombone students.

Lectured non-music and music majors in the History of Jazz providing a sociological and historical context on the development of jazz in America.

Adjunct Professor of Music, Jazz Studies 2011-2013

Indiana University-Purdue University Indianapolis

Created and lectured music majors in Music Business Marketing.

Lectured non-music majors through Understanding Jazz and Jazz for Listeners courses.

Programmed and directed IUPUI Large Jazz Ensemble 2, and jazz combo.

Jazz Faculty 2005-2007

University of Indianapolis Jazz Combo Camp

Provided daily group instruction to high school jazz combo students, emphasizing improvisation and tune learning.

Assistant Band Director; Director of Jazz Program 2002-2009

Park Tudor School

Taught individual and group instruction to brass students, 5th grade through 12th grade.

Shared conducting and rehearsing duties for Middle School and Upper School bands.

Rehearsed, arranged music, and directed Middle School and Upper School brass ensembles.

Conducted the Park Tudor School Spring Musical

Provided individual and group jazz instruction to Middle and Upper School students.

Developed jazz program, arranged music, and implemented jazz performance curriculum for all interested students in Middle and Upper Schools.

Associate Instructor (A.I.) of Jazz 1998-2000

Indiana University Jacobs School of Music

Directed and rehearsed A.I. large jazz ensemble.

Kept attendance, graded papers, and lectured when needed, for Dr. Baker.

Proctored jazz ensemble auditions.

Performed as a member of the School of Music A.I. Jazz Quintet.